Some Remarks upon Government, and particularly upon the Establishment of the English Monarchy, Jan. 22, 1688.

Four Questions debated—1. Whether the exercise of Government of England be totally subverted? 2. Admitting the exercise of Government dissolv'd, whether the power of settling is in the People? 3. Whether, as the case stands, 'tis best to settle the Exercise of the Government in the person who would be next by lineal descent, if King James II. was actually dead? 4. Whether 'tis consistent with the Prince's honour to accept of the Government, especially considering his Declaration to redress matters by a Free Parliament?

Important Questions of State, Law, Justice, and Prudence, both Civil and Religious, upon the late Revolutions, and present state of these Nations. With a specimen of a Declaration against Debauchery.

Historical Introduction, by J. Washbourne.
Historical Relation of the Military Government of Gloucester, by John Corbet. To which is prefixed the Author's Life.
A true Relation of the late Attempt made upon the Town of Ciceter, in the County of Glouc', the Seventh day of January, 1642, by the Lord Marquesse Hartford, Lord-General of the Cavaliers of the Western Parts, assisted by Prince

Robert, Prince Maurice, the Earl of Carnarvon, the Lord Chandois, and divers others; together with the Answer of Jo. Georges, Esq. (an inhabitant there, and one of the Burgesses of the Parliament for the said Town), to the severall, Messages sent to them by that Lo. Generall and Prince Robert, as it was sent in a Letter to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Say and Seale, Lord-Lieutenant of that County. Published chiefly that God may be glorified for their happy deliverance, and to prevent all false and scandalous reports thereof. London, Printed for I. T. 1642 (jan. 19).

A particular Relation of the Action before Cyrencester (or Cycester), in Glocestershire, taken in on Candlemas Day, 1642, by part of His Majestie's Army. Written by an Eye-witnesse. Printed in the yeare 1642.

A Relation of the Taking of Ciceter, in the Covnty of Glocester, on Thursday, Febru. 2, 1642, by Seven Thousand of the Cavaliers. Sent to a Friend in London, by one who was present at, and some days after, the taking of it. Published because of the many false reports that were in print concerning that businesse. Printed at London 1642 (Feb. 20th.)

The Petition of the Inhabitants of Cyrencester, whose names are hereunto subscribed, presented to His Majesty at Oxford; with His Majestie's Answer thereunto. Printed by His Majestie's command, at Oxford, Febr. 28, by Leonard Lichfield, Printer to the University, 1642.

The Victoriovs and Fortunate Proceedings of Sir William Waller and his Forces in Wales, as it was sent in a Letter from Sir William Waller and Sir Arthur Haslerig, and read in both Houses of Parliament, Aprill 15, 1643.

A true Relation of the late Fight betweene Sir William Waller's Forces and those sent from Oxford. Sent from a Colonell in that Army to a Friend of his in London, 1643.

A briefe and exact Relation of the most Materiall and Remarkeable Passages that hapned in the late well-formed (and as valiently defended) Siege laid before the City of Glocester. Collected by John Dorney, Esquire, Town-Clarke of the said City, who was there resident the whole Siege, and applied himselfe wholy to this businesse. London 1643.

A true Relation of the late Expedition of his Excellency Robert Earle of Essex for the Relief of Gloucester. London, 1643.

A true and exact Relation of the Marchings of Two Regiments of the Trained Bands of the City of London, as also of the Three Regiments of the Auxiliary Forces, for the Reliefe of Glocester. Set forth by Henry Foster, quondam Serjeant to Captain George Mosse. London, 1643.

A true Relation of the severall Passages which have happened to our Army since it advanced towards Glocester, with the manner of the Reliefe of the same, related in a Letter from a Friend in the Army. London, 1643.

A true Relation of a wicked Plot intended, and still on foot, against the City of Glocester, to betray the same into the hands of the Cavaliers, Discovered by Captain Backhouse, who was wrought upon to have betrayed the same by the sollicitation of one Edward Stanford, Esquire, a grand Papist, but a Lieutenant-Colonel amongst the Cavaliers. Together with severall Letters from my Lord Digby and Sir William Vavassour to Captain Backhouse. London, 1644.

Eben-ezer: a full and exact Relation of the severall Remarkable and Victorious Proceedings of the ever-renowned Colonell Massy, Governour of Gloucester. London, 1644.

A great Victory obtained by Collonel Massey at the Storming of Sir John Winter's House; with a List of the chief of the Prisoners' Names. London, 1644.

Fovre Ordinances of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, viz.: The first, for Raising and Maintaining of Horse and Foot for the Garrison of Glocester; the second, for a Weekly Assessment on the County and City of Glocester; the third, for a Continuance of a Weekly Assessment on the City and County of Glocester; the fourth, concerning Curran. London, 1645.

An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons in Parliament, for Uniting certain Churches, and for Maintenance of Preaching-Ministers in the City of Glocester. London 1647.
